

The Empire Wheat Drill

Has the Most Accurate Feed
Has the Best Fertilizer attachment
Has the Lightest Draft
Has the most friends

Of Any Drill
on the Market

Equal Distribution of Grain
Equal Distribution of Fertilizer
Equal or Uniform Depth

We Have Both Hoe and Disc.
GET THE BEST.

Been Handling the Empire for Twenty Years.
GET THE BEST.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES IN SUIT

Claims the Tennessee Central Owes It Over Eighty Thousand Dollars.

FINANCING THE LINE.

Assets Company Gave Its Dues Away in Rebates to Chicago Firm.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 29.—The recovery of $81,477.50 is sought by the Standard Trust Company, of New York, in a suit brought against the Tennessee Central railroad company. The suit grows out of the alleged rights acquired by the complainant by reason of their financing the building of the railroad. Alleged illegal rebates, in violation of the interstate commerce laws are charged against the defendant. The Trust company claims also that rebates have been paid out of the receipts, it is claimed, were pledged to the trust company and were its exclusive property. The rebates mentioned are alleged to have been paid a Chicago firm.

GEORGE O. TODD

Announces for Mayor of Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 29.—The announcement of Geo. O. Todd as an Independent Republican candidate for Mayor, closely following that of Owen Tyler, the Independent Democrat, makes four tickets in the field. There is still considerable talk of a fifth ticket with Ralph W. Bingham for Mayor.

Enter School.

See your County Superintendent and write H. H. Cherry, President, Western Normal, Bowling Green, Ky., concerning free scholarship. Fall session opens September 7th.

Electric Lights for Cadiz.

Cadiz, Ky., Aug. 30.—A. P. White & Co., of this place, have the matter of an electric light plant for Cadiz under consideration and if the City Council will agree to take twelve or more street lights they say they will put the plant in this fall. They expect to get the power from the water dam at the mill plant of A. P. White & Co., and will also put several gasoline engines with which to operate the plant when the water is too high or too low to get the power from the dam.

School Contract Let Out.

Central City, Aug. 28.—The contract for the brick schoolhouse to be built here was let to Judge R. L. Hendricks. His bid was $21,946, and includes all except the painting. This contract was let to Peyton Dempsey.

SIX HEARTS

With But a Single Thought
—a Triple Wedding.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—A triple romance, in which three sisters fell in love simultaneously, is to have a happy ending tomorrow, when the three daughters of Mrs. Louise Lamson, 686 West Jackson Boulevard, are to become brides. Perhaps the most unique feature of the strange romance is that each sister set the date of her wedding without the knowledge of her other sisters, confiding the secret of their betrothal only to her mother.

New Flour.

I have just received a car load of the best flour made for bakers' use and want every citizen of Hopkinsville and vicinity to give my bread a trial. Delivery to any part of the city any hour during the day. We make all kinds of fancy cakes, which are the best.

D. M. BOOKER,
Ninth Street.

Papers Served.

Corning, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Papers were served yesterday in Hammondsport upon Mrs. Glenn H. Curtiss and L. R. Masson, secretary-treasurer of the Perring-Curtiss Aeroplane Company, in behalf of the Wright brothers, of Dayton, O., who are bringing suit for alleged infringement on their aeroplane patents. The papers are returnable in the United States District Court in New York on October 20.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Ford celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Saturday at their home on East Thirteenth street. Mr. Ford is the veteran brick-mason who has been with the Forbes Manufacturing Co. for many years and is one of the best mechanics in his line who has ever been in the city.

IN KENTUCKY TOWNS

Postmaster General Announces New Appointments.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Postmaster General Hitchcock today announced the following recess appointments of Presidential postmasters in Kentucky: George Wilhelm, Newport; James C. Pruett, Campbellsville; William J. Manby, Lagrange; Jerry B. Mason, Mayfield.

The appointment of Mason, at Mayfield, is regarded as a return to power of the so-called Happy faction in that section. Some time ago Postmaster J. H. Happy, of Mayfield, was turned down by Hitchcock and one Keyes appointed. Mason is said to be identified with the Happy people.

Teachers Wanted.

The demand for teachers who have been trained in the Western Normal is greater than the supply. The Fall Session opens September 7th. Write President H. H. Cherry, Bowling Green, Ky., for information relative to free tuition.

FOR SALE—Real estate in all parts of the city. J. F. ELLIS.

Here and There.

HARDWICK, JEWELER.

A few drops of I. W. Harper Whiskey will take the chill out of a glass of ice water—It will improve your taste and aid your digestion. Careful people use no other whiskey except I. W. Harper. Sold by W. R. Long, Hopkinsville, Ky.

See J. H. Dagg for contracting, building and general repair work of all kinds. Phone 476.

Fancy cakes of all kinds at D. M. Booker's, Ninth street. Delivery to any part of city.

If you want good bread and best of cakes call on D. M. Booker.

Telephone D. M. Booker for the best bread.

GROOM PASSED MARK

Barren County Land King Weds at Glasgow.

Glasgow, Ky., Aug. 27.—After having passed his four-score years, "Uncle Jack" Hayes, as he is familiarly called by his friends, was married here to Mrs. William Milligan, a well-known widow, of this place. Mr. Hayes is eighty-two years of age, and is frequently referred to as the land king of Southern Kentucky. His wealth is estimated at over $100,000.

VOTE FOR

Judge Joe McCarroll and Walter L. Krone
Non-Partisan Candidates For
CIRCUIT JUDGE and COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY

Aug. 25 2 m

TOBACCONISTS CLASH.

Independent says Burley Society Restrains Trade.

Covington, Ky., Aug. 28.—Suit for threefold damages amounting in all to $135,528.40, will, it is said, be filed in a few days in the federal court in this city by Clark & Scott, independent tobacco manufacturers, of Scranton, Pa., against the Burley Tobacco Society of Kentucky, a branch of the American Society of Equity. The action it is asserted, will be brought under section 7 of the Sherman anti-trust law, alleging that the Burley Society has formed a conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Latham Breaks Record.

Hubert Latham, driving his monoplane through wind and rain at Betheny aviation field at Rheims Thursday eclipsed Paulhan's record made the day before. The Frenchman, who twice failed in his effort to cross the English Channel, covered 95.88 miles in two hours and eighteen minutes. Blierot and Rongier in making landings injured spectators.

Personal Gossip.

Mr. D. G. Edwards, general manager of the Home Telephone Co. is spending his vacation this week at Diamond Springs.

Judge Buckner Leavell is getting much better and is now able to be up and take short walks for the first time in several months.

Ed Gray continues to improve and it is planned to take him to Nashville tomorrow for an operation, made necessary by typhoid fever.

Misses Fannie Lander, Mary Gregory, Cora Williams, Claudie Brodie and Mattie Adams, of Church Hill, are visiting Miss Ruth Gossett, of Clarksville.

Miss Sue Lander is visiting this week in Gracey.

Miss Lady Foley, of Clarksville, and Miss Kathryn France, of Nashville, who have been visiting in the city returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stair, of Middleboro, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kimerling.

Mr. Robt C. Payne, of Jackson, Tenn., visited his relatives here last week.

L. M. Cayce left yesterday to attend the Democratic Barbecue in Louisville.

Mrs. H. T. Tandy and little son, of Winter Haven, Fla., spent Saturday with their cousin, Mrs. R. T. Daniels, of this city.

DOWN WITH SHIP.

G. E. Eccles and Four of the Crew Perish.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 27.—One man, a wireless telegraph operator, gave his life that more than 200 might be saved today, when George E. Eccles of Seattle went down with the Alaska Steamship company's steamer Ohio, while sounding the "C. Q. D."

His calls for help as his vessel was sinking brought the steamers Kingfisher, Humboldt, and Rupert City to the rock off Steep Point, in Hish-kish narrows, British Columbia, and all but himself and four others were saved. Only one passenger lost his life.

OLD OAKEN BUCKET.

Memphis Man Seeks Well of Childhood Home.

Union, S. C., Aug. 27.—An irresistible longing for a drink of water from the well of his childhood home brought N. W. Gwin 1,250 miles this week. He arrived here yesterday from Memphis, took his drink several times over and announced that he was ready to return.

Gwin left here forty-three years ago and had never returned. The other day he began to thirst for a drink of the cool waters which quenched his thirst in childhood, so he packed his bag and returned. He remained here about an hour and caught a fast train for Memphis where it is said he has prospered.

CAPT. J. F. CHASE.

Hopes to Sell Government a Flyer Within a Year.

Washington, Aug. 27.—From hoopskirt with bustle attachment to airship runs the story of the inventive genius of Capt. J. F. Chase, Union army veteran, now here from his home in Veteran City, Fla. He has just secured a patent on his airship, and it makes the 47th that the patent office has sent out to him.

It was just after some of his civil war wounds had healed that Capt. Chase embarked upon his inventive career.

A hoopskirt contribution to feminine fashions was the first manifestation of his creative genius.

Now Capt. Chase pins his faith to the lighter-than-air type of ships. He expects to have one of his flyers completed within a year, when he will try to sell it to the government.

SIXTH TRAGEDY AT HENDERSON

W. M. Ball Kills Ed Dukes in Argument Over Abandoned Race Meet.

SIX MURDERS IN MONTH

Reported Dead Man Accused Slayer of Having Warrants Issued.

Henderson, August 29.—The sixth tragedy to occur here in thirty days happened Friday night at 6:30 o'clock when Ed Dukes was shot and instantly killed by W. M. Ball in front of Bill's saloon in the most prominent part of the city.

It is said that Dukes accused Ball of being instrumental in having warrants issued for parties connected with the races here, which caused them to be abandoned. Meeting this evening an argument ensued, ending in Ball killing Dukes. It is said Dukes had made no demonstration when he was killed.

Immediately after the shooting Ball surrendered and it is reported will plead self defense.

Dukes was about 35 years of age and lived at San Francisco, Cal. He was well known in Madisonville, having started the races at the recent Hopkins County Fair. He also acted as starter at other fairs in Western Kentucky.

Chewed Too Much.

A young lady in Greece, Ia., contracted the habit of chewing gum, and became a slave to it. A few days ago she noticed a peculiar twitching in the left side of her mouth. It grew worse and finally the mouth was drawn out of shape, and a physician was summoned. He pronounced the trouble paralysis of the mouth due to mastication.—Williamstown Courier.

New Catalogue Free.

The new catalogue giving full information concerning the educational work of the Western Normal, mailed on application. Address H. H. Cherry, President Western Normal, Bowling Green, Kentucky.

LOCAL SERVICE UNSURPASSED

LONG DISTANCE SERVICE BEST

TRY THEM!

One Rate to All
Business $3.00
Professional office..... $2.50
Residence $1.50

The Hopkinsville Home Telephone Co.

Incorporated.
CALL 1444 FOR MANAGER.